

9 Must-See St. Barts Beaches and Beach Clubs for 2023

The best St. Barts beach clubs

In St. Barts, you can also opt for a beach club, rather than an undeveloped beach. Beach Clubs are set just a few meters away from the shoreline and offer loungers, cocktail and menu service, loungers, blankets, and everything else you could want for a luxurious day at the beach. Many also have music and beachside restaurants; some have pools. Depending on the club, you may be able to use a beach lounge as long as you order food and drinks, while others have an entry fee. The fee may cover just your sun lounge, or it could come with perks like cocktails or lunch.

Dont forget that you can use any beach in St. Barts for free, including the ones directly in front of the beach clubs. But you'll need to bring your own blankets, beach towel, drinks, and more.

Le Barthélemy

Le Barthelemy sits on Grand Cul de Sac beach, more commonly called "the lagoon." It's one of the most shallow St. Barts beaches, and you can actually walk from one side to the other and never be more than waist-deep. As with all beaches in St. Barts, the entire space is public.

But if you want to experience the lagoon with a little more luxury, buy the 95 Euro day pass from luxury hotel Le Barthelemy. It includes not just a posh lounge for the whole day in the hotel's pretty beach area, but also a two-course meal while you're there. There's top-notch service in the beach area, so you can order everything from champagne to cocktails to items off their beach restaurant menu without leaving your chair. Le Barthelemy also has a high-end spa with a Nordic plunge area and an on-site beach activity desk in case you want to add any additional services to your experience.

Le Barthelemy is on the opposite side of the island from the ferry terminal in Gustavia, so take that into account if you're planning a day trip from St. Maarten.
